

Pharma Project Manager - Contract Position

PPT Consulting, a consulting firm specializing in People, Process and Technology solutions, is seeking a qualified Project Manager with experience in leading projects for pharmaceutical companies to manage one or more projects for a local client.

The ideal candidate will have in-depth experience with all facets of project management and will have experience in one or more pharmaceutical applications area, such as:

- Supply Chain
- Quality
- Clinical / R&D
- Manufacturing

Other Requirements:

- Experience in Pharmaceutical industry
- Bachelors degree
- PMP or equivalent preferred
- Qualified candidate will demonstrate attention to detail and possess strong analytical skills
- Demonstrated initiative and ability to work in a self-directed manner
- Strong written, verbal, and active listening skills
- Demonstrated Team Player
- Ability to multi-task; able to effectively handle multiple priorities / responsibilities
- Demonstrated Problem solving skills
- Proficiency in using Microsoft-based office applications

References required (3). Project Duration - 6 months. Location – Huntsville, Alabama

To apply, please send a resume with "Pharma Project Manager" in the subject line and include available start date to Recruiting recruiting@pptconsultants.com